POWELL'S BALM OF ANISEED, for Coughs, Colds, Shortness of Breath, Asthma, &c.—This invaluable medicine has the extraordinary property of immediately relieving Coughs, Colds, Hoarseness, difficulty of Breathing, and Hiccups in the Throat. It operates by dissolving the congealed Phlegm, consequently causing a free expectoration.

Those who are troubled with that unpleasant tickling in the throat, which deprives them of rest night after night, by the incessant cough which it provokes, will, by taking one dose, find immediate relief; and one bottle in most cases will effect a cure.
Price 25 cents per bottle.

For sale at the Perfumery, Fancy, and Patent Medicine Depot of JAMES CLEPHANE, mar 20- Corner of Penn. av. and 12th street.

TO THE AFFLICTED!
HAMPTON'S VEGETABLE TINCTURE FOR THE CURE OF CHRONIC DISEASES.

The most safe and certain remedy ever known to the world for various chronic diseases, after they have reached a state, and assumed a character, hitherto considered desperate and incurable.

Chronic Rheumatism, Scrofula, Kings Evil, attended with swellings and ulcers, sore eyes, and loss of sight, to a frightful extent, have been cured. Females pining away by reason of deranged secretions, broken calculations, and obstructed menses, (monthly courses) even when attended by spasms or fits, have been readily relieved.

Dyspepsia yields without a struggle to its mild yet powerful action upon the stomach. In Catarrh, or Cough, Rheumatism, and Fistula, it never fails to cure, as we have fully proved. All diseases having their origin in an impure state of the blood and fluids, will be speedily and effectually removed by this invaluable medicine.

This tincture tends directly to excite a healthy action in the stomach, liver, lungs, and kidneys, to purify the blood and other fluids, by expelling every particle of morbid matter from the system, and therefore never fails to prove a valuable remedy for the diseases which calomel has been invariably used. Old sores and ulcers, or any chronic affection; and for the calomel disease, it is an infallible remedy.

This remedy is perfectly vegetable, mild, agreeable, and safe for persons of any age, either sex, or any condition, acknowledged by those who have tried it, to be the best known family medicine.

The justly celebrated tincture creates a craving appetite, and the patient is left at liberty to indulge it. The use of this medicine will change the complexion from a pallid to a fine blooming one. After using this tincture for six weeks, a person of any age may eat anything that a child of ten years of age, in full health, could eat, without the least inconvenience.

Dr. Hampton is in possession of certificates from the Hon. Henry Clay, Col. Richard M. Johnson, Hon. John B. Dawson, of La., and many others, who have been benefited by the use of this tincture.

For certificates, &c., see pamphlet.
REMEMBER! Hampton's Vegetable Tincture can be had only at the Sugar Store of

H. G. RITTER,
Pennsylvania avenue, between 11th and 12th streets, and at
A. G. GARDNER'S
Seed Store, F street, between 9th and 10th streets, opposite the Catholic church.

Each bottle has the proprietor's signature on the label. may 8-6m

THE TRUTH SOMETIMES NOT FOUND OUT UNTIL TOO LATE.

SUCH is often the case in regard to persons taking medicine. They are induced by plausible reasoning, false representation and doctrines, to employ medicines that, so far from being adapted to their disease or sickness, absolutely increase the symptoms, destroy the constitution, rack the whole system, and bring on a gradual decline, terminating in death; previous to the fatal termination, however, (but unfortunately too late,) the truth is found out that the pills, mixtures, &c. they have been taking were composed of the most powerful and dangerous ingredients, prepared too by persons knowing nothing of disease or the nature of the medicines they recommended, depending altogether upon the "general doctrine of such imposters," that their medicines will "kill or cure." Be advised, then, if you find it necessary to take some medicine for purifying the blood and cleansing the bowels, to take nothing but Dr. Leidy's justly and deservedly celebrated SARSAPARILLA BLOOD PILLS, the only pills containing Sarsaparilla in the most effectual that can be taken.

Old and young, at all times, without regard to weather, may take them without fear of taking cold, and without restraint from occupation or usual course of living. Upwards of 1,000 certificates have been published, various times, of their efficacy. More than 100,000 boxes have been sold in Philadelphia in twelve months. These facts go to prove their value, or so many never would be sold in so short a time, in a place where they are manufactured; this, however, arises in part from the fact that the manufacturer of them (Dr. Leidy) is well known at home as a regular physician and apothecary, knowing the true nature of diseases and of the medicines he recommends, attested by the most celebrated physicians, among whom are Dr. Nathaniel Chapman, Dr. Wm. Gibson, Dr. W. E. Horner, Dr. Samuel Jackson, Dr. Robert Hare, Dr. P. S. Physic, Dr. T. C. James, Dr. W. P. Dewees, Dr. J. Redman Coxe, Rev. W. H. Delancy, Robert Adrian, L.L.D., &c. &c.

Orders for Dr. Leidy's BLOOD PILLS are daily received from the North, South, East, and West, and the most flattering accounts, from every direction, of their unparalleled success. A single box (25 cents) may save as many dollars, if taken in time, instead of the dangerous medicines now forced on the public, and by taking which persons so often find it necessary at last to take Dr. Leidy's Blood Pills, to counteract their injurious consequences.

They are prepared only, and sold Wholesale and Retail, at Dr. Leidy's Health Emporium, No. 191, North Second street, below Vine street, Philadelphia. And by CHARLES STOTT,
Agent for the District.

CLAY AND FRELINGHUYSEN.

(A NEW WHIG SONG.)

TUNE—"Picknicky."

Sure such a day, so pre-eminently glorious:
Such a day, as the first of May, before was never seen!
The Whigs in all their measures so decidedly victorious,
Union, Harmony, and firm Resolve, presiding o'er the
O'er Clay and Frelinghuysen, [scene—
The whole country is rejoicing—

From East to West, from North to South, the Whig stock fast is rising.
The mighty ball is rolling on,
And gathering in its rolling;
Stand back, stand back, and clear the track,
Its force is past controlling.

Then raise the shout, and raise the song, for Clay and Frelinghuysen,
And loud and long, the strain prolong, to sunset from sun rising.

We claim of Maine that she again, shall give a Whig majority,
New Hampshire by November next her fetters will have burst,
Vermont's Green Mountain gallant sons will give to Clay priority,
Old Massachusetts' thundering voice will place our heroes first—

Rhode Island and Connecticut
Will join the good Whigs, flock and fold;
The Empire State, we calculate, will cut the "Sage of Lindenwald;"

The Jersey Blues will not refuse
Most gallantly to rally round
The flag where "Henry Clay" is inscribed,
And Frelinghuysen's name is found.

Then raise the shout, and raise the song, for Clay and Frelinghuysen—
Let echo strong, the strain prolong, to sunset from sun rising.

The Land of Penn will say "Amen!" and pour her tens of thousands forth—
Little Delaware will claim her share, and well will play her part—
Brave Maryland will firmly stand, as a friend of patriotic worth—

Old Virginia will give her hand, and with it give her North Carolina's choice is Clay— [heart—
The South is claimed by John Calhoun,
But we rather guess, we must confess, she's friendly to the "same old Coon;"

Of Georgia, we'll boldly say,
Defying contradiction,
On th' election day she'll go for Clay,
Who denies this deals in fiction.

Then raise the shout, and raise the song, for Clay and Frelinghuysen,
And let them roll from pole to pole, like peals of thunder rising.

Alabama's vote, we'd have you note, will be thoro'ly a Whig one—
Mississippi, too, we tell to you, will walk in the same track—
Louisiana's vote for Clay will be a thundering big one,
Though saying so, perhaps, will make the Democrats look black.

We hope to find Arkansas join'd
With Missouri firm and hearty,
Having found Van Buren's case past curing, with the great Whig party.

Kentucky's pride is Henry Clay—
Who would not boast of such a son?
And Tennessee most firm will be,
Until the great Whig victory's won.

Then raise the shout, and raise the song, for Clay and Frelinghuysen;
With flag unfur'd let's show the world the friends of freedom rising.

By thousand after thousand votes, Ohio will her wish express,
As Queen of the West she'll do her best, the Son of the West to aid;
Indiana will act gallantly, and forward all her power she'll press,
And Illinois will shout for joy when our banner is displayed.

And never can young Michigan
Refuse to join our party;
To none but Clay she'll give her vote, and give it free and hearty.

You little Van, and all your clan,
And you, bold Captain Tyler,
If you persevere against our man,
You each will "burst your biter!"

Then raise the shout, and raise the song, for Clay and Frelinghuysen,
And Columbia's sons and daughters fair will join in your rejoicing.

And Florida and Iowa, and the rich plains of Wisconsin,
Though they have no vote, will each promote, the cause of Henry Clay;
And pushing on to Oregon, where thousands are advancing,

We shall find all hearts and hands are join'd, all pointing the same way.
Then Stewart, Cass, and Dodge stand back,
Go, if you like, to Texas;
Dick Johnson, Polk, and all such folk, you have no power to vex us.

The lesser fry, we pass them by,
In whatever quarter rising;
All must give way to Henry Clay,
And worthy Frelinghuysen.

Then raise the shout, and raise the song, for Clay and Frelinghuysen—
Their echo strong shall roll along around the wide horizon.

THE ELDER SISTER.

BY MRS. SIGOURNEY.

The station of the elder sister has always appeared to me so peculiarly important, that the privileges which it assumes is almost a sacred character. The natural adjunct and ally of the mother, she comes forth among the younger children, both as a mistress and example. She readily wins their confidence, from a conviction that she even more freshly than a parent, "is touched with the feelings of their infirmities." In proportion to her interest in their affections, will be her power to improve their characters, and to allure them, by the bright examples of her own more finished excellence. Her influence upon brothers is often eminently happy. Of a young man who evinced high moral principle, with rich and refined sensibilities—it was said by an admiring stranger—"I will venture to affirm that he had a good sister, and she older than himself."

It has been my lot to know more than one elder sister of surpassing excellence. I have seen them assuming the office of a teacher, and faithfully impart to those whose understandings were but feebly enlightened the advantages of their own complete education. I have seen them softening and modifying the character of brothers; breathing until it melted, upon obduracy, which no authority could subdue.

I have seen one, in early bloom of youth and amid the temptations of affluence so aiding, cheering, influencing, a large portion of brothers and sisters, that the lipping student—comes to be helped in its lessons—and the wild one from its sports, brought the torn garment trustingly to her needle, and the delighted infant stretched its arms to hear her bird like song; and the cheek of her mother, leaning on so sweet a substitute, forgot to fade.

I have seen another, when the last remaining parent was taken to God, come forth in her place, the guide and comfort of her orphans. She believed that to her who is now in heaven, the most acceptable mourning would be to follow her unfinished designs. Her motto was the poet's maxim: "He mourns the dead who lives as they desire." As if a glance of that pure ascended spirit was constantly upon her, she entered into her unfinished labors. To the poor she was the same messenger of mercy; she bore the same crosses with a meek and patient mind. But especially to her younger sister and brother, she poured out, as it were, the very essence of her being. She cheered their sorrows. She shared and exulted in their pleasures. She studied their traits of character, that she might adopt the best method both to their infirmities and virtues. To the germ of every good disposition, she was a faithful florist; to their waywardness, she opposed a mild firmness until she prevailed.

She laid the infant sister on her own pillow; she bore it in her arms, and rejoiced in its growth, health, and beauty. And when it hastened on its tottering feet to her, as a mother, for it had known no other, the smile of that young brow, and the tear that chastened it were more radiant than any semblance of joy, which glitters in the halls of fashion. These little ones grew up around her, and God gave her the reward of her labors, in their affection and goodness. Thus she walked day by day, with her eye to her heart, upheld by the happiness which she diffused; and a little lower than the angels.
